

- 09.30 Registration & Coffee
- 10.00 Chair's Introduction
Eve Richardson, Chief Executive, NCPC
- Introduction to Palliative Care for Chronic Respiratory Disease*
- 10.05 Respiratory Disease: The Size of the Problem
Martyn Partridge, President Elect, British Thoracic Society
- 10.30 The Palliative Care Perspective
Sharon Chadwick, Macmillan Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Hospice of St Francis
- The Current Situation*
- 10.55 Perceptions & Levels of Current Involvement: Results of the first National Survey
Sam Ahmedzai, Professor of Palliative Medicine, University of Sheffield
- 11.20 Questions & Answers
- 11.30 Tea & Coffee Break
- Looking to the Future*
- 12.00 The End of Life Care Strategy & its Importance for CRD
Eve Richardson, Chief Executive, NCPC
- 12.20 The National Service Framework for COPD
Patrick White, Senior Lecturer, King's College London School of Medicine
- 12.45 LUNCH
- 13.45 Introduction to the Afternoon
Dame Helena Shovelton, Chief Executive, British Lung Foundation
- Good Practice: Learning from Each Other*
- 13.50 What People with CRD Tell Us: Results of a National Survey
Dame Helena Shovelton, Chief Executive, British Lung Foundation
- 14.10 The Bradford Model
Ian Fenwick, Macmillan GP Facilitator, Bradford
- 14.30 Advanced COPD: A Study of Palliative Care Needs & Service Provision
Alison Spence, Community Hospice Nurse, Northern Ireland Hospice Care
- 14.50 Specialist Palliative Care & Respiratory Services: Developing a Systematic Process
Clare Littlewood, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Whiston Hospital
- Where do we go from here?*
- 15.10 Roundtable Discussions:
*What do we want to do locally with today's learning?
Identify vital action points, for whom and by when.*
- 15.45 Feedback
- 16.00 Close