

09.30	Registration & Coffee
09.55	Chair's Introduction Eve Richardson, Chief Executive, NCPC
10.00	What's happening now?: A carer's perspective on end of life care today Dorothy Runnicles, Carer
10.25	What's happening next?: The End of Life Care Strategy- Anticipating ways in which this will Improve Care Eve Richardson, Chief Executive NCPC
10.50	Using the Mental Capacity Act to Make Change Happen Identifying ways in which the MCA can improve care and deliver choice Simon Chapman, Ethics Advisor, NCPC
11.20	Panel Discussion
11.30	Tea & Coffee Break
	MAKING IT HAPPEN IN PRACTICE
11.50	Advance Care Planning Practices- Advance care planning and communication in action Claire Henry, National Programme Director, EoLC Programme Using the new Preferred Priorities for Care toll to record and protect patient choice Les Storey, National Lead NHS EoLC Programme
12.20	Making Local Change Happen Using the MCA to educate colleagues about palliative care Carole Dacombe, Medical Director, St Peter's Hospice
12.45	Panel Discussion
13.00	LUNCH & EXHIBITION
13.55	Chair's Introduction to the afternoon, Simon Chapman
14:00	Making it Happen in Your Organisation Round table discussions to identify priorities and next steps on the following questions: Respecting patient priorities in practice Communicating with patients & families Early experience of the MCA in practice Simon Chapman, Ethics Advisor , NCPC
14.50	The Mental Capacity Act in Action 3 Case Studies looking at dilemmas and solutions: MCA assisting with ethical dilemmas MCA & cognitive impairment/dementia MCA & end of life care decisions Rob George, Palliative Medicine Consultant Karen Harrison, Admiral Nurse Consultant/NCPC Dementia Project Sally Stannard, CNS, St Christopher's Hospice
15.50	Final Remarks & Close