

2010 Subscriber Forum

10th March 2010
Houses of Parliament

Programme

THE
NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE
CARE

2.15 Welcome

Reflections on the year and priorities for 2010/11
Question & Answer session with NCPC's Chairman
Professor Mayur Lakhani, Chairman, NCPC

2.45 'Dying to talk" - The Dying Matters Awareness Week (15th - 19th March)
Hilary Fisher, Director, Dying Matters Coalition
John Palmer, Head of Communications, Dying Matters Coalition

3.05 Making personalisation real

Simon Chapman, Director of Policy, Ethics & Parliamentary Affairs, NCPC
Mandy Paine, COPD service user and member NCPC Patient & Carer Partnership
Rick O'Brien, Head of Branch, Adult Social Services, Wirral Council

Panel Discussion

4.00 Supporting people with dementia at the end of life

Karen Harrison Denning, Admiral Nurse, For Dementia, Barnet, Enfield and Haringey Mental Health NHS Trust and seconded to the National Council for Palliative Care
Adrian Treloar, Consultant and Senior Lecturer in Old Age Psychiatry, Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust

Panel Discussion

4.45 Close

APPG on Hospice and Palliative Care

10th March 2010
Houses of Parliament

THE
NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE
CARE

Programme

5.00 Welcome and Introductions

Fabian Hamilton MP

Chair of the All Party Parliamentary Group for Hospice & Palliative Care

IMPROVING END OF LIFE CARE FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED IT

5.05 Progress with implementing the End of Life Care Strategy, after the first year of additional funding

Phil Hope MP, Minister of State for Care Services (invited)

Professor Sir Mike Richards, National Clinical Director for Cancer and End of Life Care

Opposition frontbenchers (invited)

5.25 Key findings from NCPC's survey monitoring the implementation of the End of Life Care Strategy - funding

Simon Chapman, Director of Policy, Ethics & Parliamentary Affairs, NCPC

5.30 Challenging the myths about hospice care

David Praill, Chief Executive, Help the Hospices

5.40 Questions and discussion

FOCUS ON MOTOR NEURONE DISEASE

5.45 Launch of the APPG on MND's report on Access to Specialist Palliative Care for People with Motor Neurone Disease in England

Mark Todd MP, Chair of the APPG for Motor Neurone Disease (invited)

Linda Adams, carer (invited)

6.05 Questions and discussion

6.15 Close