The National Council for Palliative Care

A good death in hospital: compassionate care for all

End of Life Care in Acute Hospitals

Ann Macfarlane OBE
Disability Equality & Independent Living Consultant

An individual carer’s experience
The National Council for Palliative Care
A good death in hospital: compassionate care for all

Environmental Access:
- Within the:
  - Accident & Emergency Department
  - hospital ward
  - sister’s office
  - mortuary
The National Council for Palliative Care
A good death in hospital: compassionate care for all

Attitudinal Barriers:

- Within the:
  - Accident & Emergency Department
  - hospital ward
  - mortuary
The National Council for Palliative Care

A good death in hospital: compassionate care for all

Access to Information for those who wait:

- Within the: Hospital
The National Council for Palliative Care

A good death in hospital: compassionate care for all

A good death for those dying and appropriate support for those watching and waiting:

Only one opportunity to ‘get it right’
The National Council for Palliative Care

A good death in hospital:
compassionate care for all

A good death for those dying and appropriate support for those watching and waiting:

ASK