

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE
CARE

DON'T MISS THE
POSTER DISPLAY
in the exhibition area

Making Choice Happen:

Delivering quality end of life care to make choice a reality for everyone

Thursday 15th October

The Waldorf Hilton, Aldwych, London, WC2B 4DD

WITH THANKS TO HEADLINE SPONSOR

Sue Ryder

09.00 Registration, refreshments and exhibition

09.40 Chair's Welcome

Claire Henry MBE, Chief Executive, The National Council for Palliative Care & Dying Matters

09.45 Key Note Speech: Priorities for choice at the end of life

Ben Gummer, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Care Quality

10.10 What does choice for care at the end of life mean?

Dr David Brooks, Macmillan Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Chesterfield Royal Hospital

10.30 Fostering the development of choice in the community and measuring its impact

Professor Julia Verne, Head of Clinical Epidemiology and Clinical Lead - National End of Life Care Intelligence Network, Public Health England

10.50 The impact of choice - panel discussion with people with personal experience

Including 'I Didn't Want That' film presentation

Panellists:

Lynn Cawley, End of life campaigner and chaplain to a homeless community

Helen Findlay, Ex-carer; campaigner to improve end of life care and PhD candidate on service user involvement in palliative care; Member of the Choice at the End of Life Independent Review Panel

Harvey Ward, RCGP's Lay Chair - Patients and Carers Partnership Group and member of NCPC's People in Partnership group

June Hennell, Guest Lecturer in Dementia; Member of GAP, Worldwide Global Action for Personhood in Dementia

11.20 Coffee and exhibition

11.40 Workshop Sessions 1 – Practical delivery of choice for end of life care

Workshop A: Cost of delivering choice

Simon Jones, Director of Policy and Public Affairs, Marie Curie

Workshop B: Commissioning for choice

Paul Hayes, End of Life Programme Lead, Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust

Workshop C: Using technology to deliver choice

Claire Pearson, VitruCare Project Manager, Sue Ryder

Workshop D: Having meaningful conversations to support choice

Jo Wilson, Nurse Consultant (Palliative Care), Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust

12.40 Lunch and Poster Session (13.15-13.35)

1.40 Workshop Sessions 2 - Repeat of above

2.40 Coffee & exhibition

3.00 Afternoon Chair's Welcome

Sally Picken, Business Development Manager - Palliative Care, Sue Ryder

3.05 Sharing knowledge of person-centred care coordination for choice at the end of life

Dr Gemima Fitzgerald, Clinical Psychologist, The Rowans Hospice & Kay McConville, Heath Centre Manager, The Rowans Hospice

Yvonne Martin, Director of Nursing, Foyle Hospice, Northern Ireland

3.35 Supporting carers' needs and involving them in discussions about care

Jen Kenward, Head of Patient Experience, Community, Primary & Integrated Care, Nursing Directorate, NHS England

3.55 Q&A - Afternoon speakers

4.10 Call to action: how we can make choice happen

Professor Rob George, Medical Director, St Christophers' Hospice; Professor Palliative Care, Cicely Saunders Institute, KCL; President, Association for Palliative Medicine of GB & Ireland

4.25 Chair's closing remarks