

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE CARE

About us

The National Council for Palliative Care (NCPC) is the umbrella charity for all those involved in palliative, end of life and hospice care in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. We believe that everyone approaching the end of life has the right to the highest quality care and support, wherever they live, and whatever their condition. We work with government, health and social care staff and people with personal experience to improve end of life care for all.

What we do

- We produce a range of publications, leaflets, DVDs, conferences and training programmes to help our subscribers around the country deliver the best levels of care.
- We work with government, the NHS, the voluntary and private sectors to shape future strategies and plans.
- We involve patients, carers and families in everything we do to ensure our work is informed by people with real experience.
- Our national conferences cover all aspects of palliative care, looking at specific conditions or diseases, care in different settings and national policy and guidance. Many events have CPD accreditation.

Subscribe to NCPC

By subscribing to NCPC you will support our work to research, lobby and campaign on end of life issues across health and social care. Together, we provide a strong voice on behalf of people providing and using end of life care services everywhere. You can join now at www.ncpc.org.uk/subscribe

Key benefits

- A free copy of every publication and DVD we produce, mailed out each month
- 50% discount on further copies of NCPC publications
- 50% discount on delegate fees at NCPC conferences
- Free attendance at regional conferences and workshops
- Free access to all NCPC publications via our online library
- Inside Palliative Care, our quarterly news magazine
- Monthly Policy Round-up email

Contact us

Call 020 7697 1520

Web www.ncpc.org.uk

Email enquiries@ncpc.org.uk

Twitter @NCPC_tweets

The National Council for Palliative Care, leads the Dying Matters Coalition, which aims to help people talk more openly about dying, death and bereavement, and to make plans for the end of life. For more information, please see overleaf.

Let's talk about it

Dying Matters

'Let's talk about it'

The Dying Matters Coalition

Dying Matters is a coalition of 30,000 members across England and Wales which aims to help people talk more openly about dying, death and bereavement, and to make plans for the end of life. Our membership includes hospices, care homes, NHS organisations and staff, GPs, funeral directors, the legal sector, charities, faith groups and many more.

What we do

- We provide clear and practical advice through our information, leaflets and website to help you and your loved ones make plans for the end of life
- Our range of eye-catching resources and materials offers a host of ways to start important conversations about dying
- We encourage more open discussion of dying, death and bereavement in the media
- Our Find Me Help database lets you locate the services near you that are available to people in the last years of life, their families, carers and friends
- We keep our members updated with all the latest issues through our quarterly newsletter, regular email bulletins, and social media

Five things you can do to live and die well

Record your funeral wishes

Write your will

Tell your loved ones your wishes

Plan your future
care and support

Register as an organ donor

Join Dying Matters

- Joining the Dying Matters Coalition will see you or your organisation play a key role in changing attitudes and behaviours around dying, death and bereavement.
- We offer support and assistance in running local awareness-raising events and activities, as well as access to a range of useful resources, including a communications handbook, media templates and a range of co-brandable promotional materials.
- We are always on the look out for new members who are committed to supporting changing public attitudes towards dying, death and bereavement. We encourage you to join the conversation by becoming a member today at www.dyingmatters.org/members

Contact us

Call freephone 0800 021 44 66

Visit www.dyingmatters.org

Email info@dyingmatters.org

Twitter @DyingMatters

The Dying Matters Coalition is led by the National Council for Palliative Care, the umbrella charity for all those involved in palliative, end of life and hospice care in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. For more information, please see overleaf.

THE
NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE
CARE